State Board Set For Dec. 4 Meet

The post-convention meeting of the State Convention Board will be held at the Baptist Building in Jackson, Tuesday, Dec. 4, it has been announced by Dr. Chester L. Quarles, executive secretary-treasurer.

This meeting will be the first one for this convention year since the election of the Board by the Convention in session Nov. 13-15.

The election of officers will be the first order of business at 2 p. m. since the 1955-56 officers' terms have expired.

Another important phase will be the election of the nine-man Executive Committee. This is done by ballot with nominations from the floor.

This year's Board will be increased by one member, bringing it to 76, with the recognition of the newly-formed Adams County Association by the recent Convention.

This association, presently composed of 11 churches in Adams county, withdrew by mutual agreement from the Union Association, composed of Adams, Jefferson and Claiborne counties.

The Board will as is customary consider those matters referred to it by the Convention and any other business deemed necessary.

Three Regular Meetings

The December meeting is the first regular meeting in the Convention year after election of the Board by the Convention

Niemoeller Says World Afraid Of Violence Powers

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (RNS) — Dr. Martin Niemoeller, president of the Evangelical Church of Hesse-Nassau in Germany, told 9,000 persons at a Reformation rally in Kiel Auditorium here that the world is afraid of its own powers of violence "and can only be saved by suffering and forgiving love."

In a reference to the H-bomb, the German churchman said that "like Peter and John, we are tempted to bring down the fire of heaven upon the evildoers." He warned that "the danger is that we shall love our own truth and own way and not put our trust in God."

"We must not give ourselves to our own ideas and our own beliefs, for both are dangerous," he said, "but we must remember that God's promise to His children stands. Christ is the way, the truth, and the life for a world in which men are caught in the nets of pride and despair."

Dr. Niemoeller came to America for a five-week lecture tour of the U. S. and Canada under the auspices of the U. S. Conference of the World Council of Churches.

Billy Graham Begins Plans For New York City Crusade

NEW YORK CITY—(Special) With the closing meeting of the Louisville Crusade on October 28, the schedule for the Billy Graham Evangelistic Team put the New York City Crusade, beginning on May 15, 1957, next in the team's planning.

Final statistics for the Louisville Crusade reveal it to be the third largest four-week Crusade the Graham Team has conducted in America—surpassed only in total attendance by the Dallas Crusade in 1953, and the Nashville Crusade in 1954.

Comparative total attendance figures for the meeting follow: Dallas, Texas, 1953, 513,000; Nashville, 1954, 669,000; Louisville, 1956, 493,850.

in November.

The next meeting, held in September, is the annual business meeting at which time the bulk of the body's business is transacted.

This includes the election of all personnel, setting of budgets and preparation of recommendations to the Convention.

The third regular meeting is the annual brief pre-convention meeting on Monday prior to the Convention.

A called meeting was held in May 1955 for the purpose of purchasing Kittiwake Baptist Assembly and one was held in 1956 for the purpose of electing an editor and associate editor for the Baptist Record and an associate executive secretary.

WMU Has International "Party"

Representatives of more than 30 nations were present for the international house party staged at Camp Garaywa last week by the State W. M. U.

Directing the party was Miss Edwina Robinson, executive secretary with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hannah of Clinton serving as host and hostess.

Those attending for the most part were the students (mostly Baptist) attending the schools and colleges of the state.

Youth Conference Dates Announced

WASHINGTON (BP) — The first world meeting of Baptist youth to be held in North America is scheduled for Toronto, Canada, June 27-July 2, 1958.

Baptist World Alliance offices here announced dates for the Baptist Youth World Conference after a meeting of the administrative section of its youth committee.

The committee chose the Varsity Arena and Varsity Stadium at University of Toronto as places where the conferences will be held. Plans have been made to accommodate a minimum of 6000 and a maximum of 8000 delegates because of housing and auditorium space available.

The Alliance urged every Baptist group in the world to send its delegates. Priority will be given young people and Baptist youth leaders from outside North America. The program is planned for young people above 15 years of age.

The theme will be "Christ for the World—Now."

WMU Has International "Party"

The principal visiting program personality was Dr. W. A. Mueller, professor of Philosophy of Religion, Southern Seminary, Louisville.

State Conventions Take Varied, Unusual Actions

State Baptist Conventions, meeting throughout the Southern Baptist Convention territory, have taken varied and unusual but significant actions as revealed in the Baptist Record condensations of Baptist Press releases of this week.

The Georgia Baptist Convention refused at its annual session to endorse the 1954 decision of the United States Supreme Court on racial segregation.

The social service commission suggested the convention endorse the court decision and suggested further that co-operating churches "seek to create an atmosphere" for compliance with the court ruling on public school segregation.

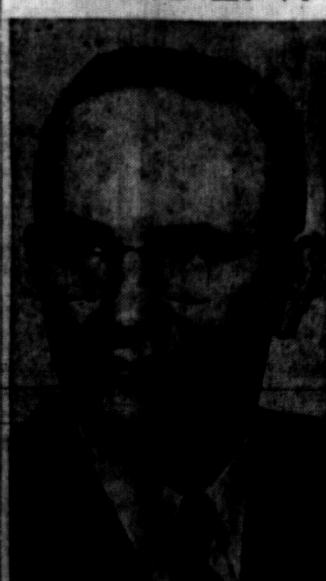

However, the convention did agree to "exercise Christian grace and patience" and "Christian principles that apply to the problem."

The Baptist General Association of Virginia has named a standing committee to study matters of religious liberty and announced its opposition to religious instruction in free public schools.

The religious liberty study commission further said that Oak Hill Baptist Academy in Grayson County apparently permitted its students to travel to and from school on public school buses and accepted public welfare funds to support boarding students.

It said it "deplored" this situation and hoped it would soon be changed.

MEET THE PRESIDENT

Dr. S. R. Woodson, pastor First Baptist Church, Columbus, is the new president of the Mis-

Arkansas Baptists want local option in race track pari-mutuel betting.

Votes Down Proposal

The Arkansas Baptist State Convention asked the state legislature to provide a referendum to the people, which is passed would permit such local option.

In a recent general election referendum, the people of Arkansas voted down a proposed state-wide ban on race track betting and also voted in favor of

SO SAYS FBI HEAD— Communism, Crime Thrive Because Men Forget God

CHICAGO (RNS) — J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, warned the nation's religious organizations to guard against Communist infiltration.

He voiced the warning here in an address to 2,500 members of the National Council of Catholic Women attending the organization's 28th biennial convention.

"Because they despise the Church, the Communists continually attempt to infiltrate unsuspecting religious organizations," the FBI chief said. "What better cloak of legitimacy can be found for their programs than to present them as the offerings of clergymen and churches? The strategy of the Communists to get others to front for them and do their dirty work cannot be underestimated."

Mr. Hoover recalled that a brief filed with the United States Supreme Court last year urging that the Internal Security Act of 1950 be declared unconstitutional was initiated by "18 persons of whom exactly

BWA Asks Aid And Prayer For Stricken Refugees

WASHINGTON (BP)—Recent upheavals in Hungary and fighting elsewhere has led the Baptist World Alliance to call on Baptists throughout the world for their prayers and their aid to refugees.

The BWA administrative committee, meeting here, made plans to aid refugees from Hungary, where a fight to end Russian domination was violently suppressed recently.

Josef Nordenhaug, president of European Baptist Seminary, Zurich Switzerland, relayed a message from Southern Baptist Missionary John Allen Moore, in Vienna. Moore described the situation in Hungary as "chaotic" and spoke of the "staggering need."

There are as many as 3,000 refugees crossing the "iron curtain" from Hungary into Austria each night, they reported. Baptists of Austria have set up three centers for refugees—one in Salzburg and two in Vienna. There are 30,000 Baptists living in Hungary, and some of these are among the refugees.

The Alliance asked a group of nine Baptist representatives in Austria to work with the Alliance relief committee in giving food, clothing, medicines.

$1.5 Million In One Day Is Dallas Record

DALLAS, Tex. (BP)—Members of First Baptist Church here pledged $1,523,891 on a single Sunday—November 18—toward the church's 1957 budget.

Church officers claimed it was the largest amount of money ever pledged to any church in a single day. The goal for the day was $1,205,000.

The goal included $800,000 for debt retirement on a new building and $705,000 to provide for church operations and missionary activities during the coming year. Both portions of the goal were over-pledged.

one half were members of the clergy." He added that of the 390 persons who signed the brief "some 100" were clergymen.

He also said it was "shocking" that half the 42 signers of a petition last Christmas requesting Presidential amnesty for convicted Communist party leaders were clergymen, professors of theology or persons engaged in other religious positions.

The FBI chief declared that Communism and crime were the "twin enemies" of American freedom. Both advanced, he said, "because men ignore God."

Mr. Hoover warned that the "Communist conspiracy is as deadly now" as it was before the Geneva Conference.

"The American Communists would have us believe they have changed their philosophy," he said. "What a farce that is! Communism in America would paralyze itself in new and more responsible restraint but it is the same old conspiracy against human dignity and freedom it has always been and always will be."

Meet The...

Mississippi Baptist Convention, having been elected at the recent meeting of the body in Jackson.

S. R. Woodson in nine years had so endeared himself to the hearts of Mississippi Baptists that they enthusiastically and decisively selected him.

The new president came to Mississippi that many years ago from the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of Humboldt, Tennessee.

It was an outstanding record of 12 years at the Tennessee Church that attracted the attention of the Columbus church in 1947. That church was seeking a strong man to succeed Dr. J. D. Franks who had retired after 28 years as pastor to accept a position in Zurich, Switzerland, with the Foreign Mission Board.

Mississippi Baptists liked him well enough to elect him as president of the Convention. Members of his own church liked him well enough recently, after nine years, to give him a new Mercury automobile.

Is Deeply Humble
S. R. Woodson has an outstanding and successful record as pastor and denominational leader but a deep sense of humility makes him the last person to admit it.

When a Baptist Record reporter congratulated him on the new honor he quickly replied, "It was a recognition of the church that brought it about."

All Mississippi Baptists will want to know more of their president so here is our effort to provide this information.

S. R. Woodson is a native of Jackson, Tenn., and a graduate of Malesus High School in that city.

He holds the B. A. degree from Union University, Jackson, Tenn., and the Th.M. degree from Southwestern Seminary.

His alma mater, Union, honored him in 1943 by awarding him the Doctor of Divinity degree. He remained at Southwestern after graduation for a while to work toward the Th.D.

Price Completes 10th Year at Parkway

Sunday, December 2, Dr. G. Norman Price will complete his tenth year of service at the Parkway Church, Jackson. During his ministry the membership has grown from 1277 to 2121 with 191 members lettered out on Dec. 28, 1952 to the Highland Church, after having been a mission of Parkway Church. The Sunday School has grown from 913 to 2195; Training Union from 285 to 827.

The church budget has increased from $33,800 to $188,387 for 1957.

During his ministry at Parkway the Rotating of Deacons has been inaugurated; the Parkway Chapel Mission was sponsored and later became a Church; a Brotherhood has been organized; a Kindergarten is now in its sixth year with an enrollment of seventy-one; a three-story Youth Building has been constructed at a cost of $150,000, and a Children's Building is now under construction at a cost of $320,000.

Five pieces of property have been purchased, one to serve as Pastor's home, one for a second baby building, and three to be used for parking purposes.

In addition to leading the church in a progressive program of enlistment and expansion Dr. Price is serving as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Mississippi Baptist Hospital; Mississippi member of the Baptist Sunday School Board and member of the future of Baptist institutions in North Carolina, including hospitals, colleges, homes for the aged, and children's homes.

The convention also defeated a resolution that would have barred Negro students from attending North Carolina Baptist colleges. This apparently left unchanged the decision of the 1955 convention to leave these matters in the hands of the trustees of the individual schools.

Seek Stetson Change

Florida Baptist Convention has voted to accept ownership and operating control of Baptist Bible Institute in Graceville, Florida.

The Bible Institute is one of several in the Southern Baptist Convention under local control. Both Florida and Kentucky Baptists petitioned unsuccessfully in the past to have control of the institutes taken by the SBC.

The convention asked the state Baptist college, Stetson University, at DeLand, to seek a charter amendment to provide for election of college trustees by the convention proper. At present, the convention can only nominate trustees.

Any revision of the charter of the University providing for direct election of its trustees by the convention would be unconstitutional, according to Burt Lane, Pensacola, attorney for the convention.

Attorney Lane told the convention that the attitude of trustees, faculty, and public generally would be taken into account by the Legislature and "if there is likelihood of public controversy upon the school should not be ignored."

Lane also warned that the University might lose some of its properties by title reversion if there are charter changes.

Kentucky Baptists voted in its recent annual meeting to establish a branch of Georgetown

College in Louisville.

The branch college, starting out as a junior college, will be established in 1960 or soon thereafter.

The association instructed its secretary to enroll as messengers all persons duly elected by the association's affiliated churches, whether the messengers are men or women.

Oklahoma In 50th Year

Oklahoma Baptists formally observed their 50th anniversary at the 1956 session of the state Convention. The body approved long-range goals for its denominational work. This would include securing $10 million endowment for Baptist institutions building new student centers at colleges, and expanding work in hospital care and child care.

Charleston Baptist Association asked South Carolina Baptists to consider establishing a Baptist college in that city.

The state convention chose a committee to study the request for the college and also was charged to study the capital needs of all institutions and agencies of the convention.

Tennessee Baptists have approved a budget division for 1957 which will give it state Baptist schools seven per cent of convention receipts.

The Baptist General Convention of Arizona elected Howard Halsell, former convention director of religious education, to administrative assistant to Executive Secretary Charles McKay.

Secret Cache of Papers Discovered In Former Laurel Parsonage

An interesting batch of documents has come to light with the demolishing of the residence in Laurel used for many years as the home for the pastor of the First Church of that city.

Found tightly sealed in a fruit jar the papers apparently were placed in the framework of the parsonage during its construction by Dr. L. G. Gates, pastor of the church for many years.

A copy of the Baptist Record dated January 14, 1926 was among the treasured items of historical interest. Examining the paper above are Sam Lindsey, Jr., who found the papers, Mrs. L. G. Gates, widow of the church's former pastor, and the present pastor, Dr. Thomas L. McKibbens.

The cache contained, in addition to a letter from Sam Lindsey, Sr., who built the house for the church. It was in the form of report on construction. The head on the stationery read, "Lindsey Wagon Co., Mfg. of Eight Wheel Log Wagons and Self-Loading Skidders."

A letter "To the Finder" was included. By an odd coincidence the son of the man who built the parsonage was selected to tear the thirty year old structure down. The finder, Sam Lindsey, Jr., is shown above.

Other items in the collection included a copy of the "Laurel Daily Leader" and the church paper, "Our Church Banner." The church paper featured a forthcoming study course for February 15-20, 1926 to be led by E. C. Williams, Miss Minnie Brown, and Merrill Moore.

The 1926 copy of the Baptist Record discovered among the papers contained some interesting notices:

The First Church, Jackson has just sold its property on Capitol Street for $215,450 and was preparing to move to its present location facing the capitol building.

The ten churches currently being served by Pastor Dan Moulder were listed with an indication that progress was being made at all of them.

Editor P. I. Lipsey was bemoaning the perennial problem of so many good articles sent to him that were so very long. Three decades later another editor finds that the problem still persists.

The January, 1926 paper carried a paragraph which cast a shadow of coming events: "General Fung Yd Hsiang, the Christian General of China, is leaving his country to train and study world conditions, beginning with Russia. The reason for his leaving is not clear."

J. S. Deaton, "State Director of Stewardship and Budget," wrote that the year just closed brought to 386 the churches pledging to "the unified program." There were 625 churches that did not pledge but gave something.

BYPU Secretary Auber J. Wilds, reporting in the paper, told of a study course just completed at Gum Grove Church in Lincoln County.

Correspondence in the particular issue included a letter from a Mississippi student then in the Southern Seminary at Louisville, Francis Judson Chastain.

Editor Lipsey wrote appreciatively of a visit to Union, Mississippi where Pastor G. O. Parker was most helpful in securing new subscriptions to the Baptist Record.

Advertising carried in this thirty year old paper brings back nostalgia about an era that is gone: Robert H. Coleman's masterpiece, "The Modern Hymnal," just off the press! Cloth, "direct from the loom to you," Russell H. Conwell's "Acres of Diamonds," Mississippi College, observing (in 1926) its centennial year with 677 students enrolled. Hasting's seeds and Sikes' "Early Big Boll Pedigreed Cotton Seed."

The paper mentions that the First Church, Gulfport, had just begun sending the Baptist Record into the home of every member and adds the comment: "The best investment possible for the home or church is $2.00 for a year's subscription to the Baptist Record." Incidentally, the individual subscription price for the paper was reduced to $1.00 the next year (1927). In 1933 in the middle of the depression it was raised to $1.50 and has remained at that figure for these 23 years. On January 1, 1957 the rate will once again return to the 1926 level of $2.00 (Every Family Plan subscriptions, however will be $1.50).

The last paragraph of the paper is still worth repeating after these three decades: "The additional power of the Record in the homes of your church members is oftentimes the extra hundred pounds of steam that pulls the load over the grade."

50 YEARS AGO
(Nothing News-worthy)
40 YEARS AGO

Pastor Judson L. Viperman of the First Church, Columbus, tells of the great revival meeting in the church and the city, which resulted in fifty-eight professions of faith. He was assisted by Editor J. W. Porter of the Western Recorder of Kentucky and Prof. J. W. Bush as song leaders.

25 YEARS AGO

The Lowrey Memorial Church, Blue Mountain, experienced a revival during an eight-days series of meetings, resulting in 16 additions to the membership and 57 rededications. Pastor Robert L. Lemons was assisted by Rev. T. W. Young of the First Church of Corinth.

Singer Joe Canzoneri tells of the very successful revival meeting with the Main Street Church, Hattiesburg, in which he was associated with Rev. T. W. Young of Corinth as preacher during which "There were close to 45 additions to the church," Rev. J. A. Barnhill, pastor.

Pastor T. J. Barksdale (Mississippi) of Louisville, Kentucky, tells of the "gracious meeting" of days during which Dr. W. T. Lowrey of Blue Mountain, Mississippi, did the preaching in the Calvary Church, Louisville, which resulted in twenty-three accessions to the church, sixteen of them by baptism. He said, "Dr. Lowrey completely captured our people and won the hearts of all who heard him. The children listened to him with absorbed interest and our young people can never be quite the same in their ideals of life after this meeting."

THREE IMPRISONED BAPTISTS RELEASED BY AUTHORITIES

BOSTON, Mass., June 10, 1969 — (BP) — Pressure here and from abroad by scores who have protested a gross miscarriage of justice has forced Governor Bellingham and Massachusetts authorities to release three Baptists who have been imprisoned for almost a year.

Thomas Gould, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Boston, and William Turner and John Farnum, Sr., members of the congregation, were arrested and imprisoned last July when they failed to comply with the sentence of the General Court banishing them from Boston.

Gould and members of his congregation have been harassed by civil authorities and officials of the established church since they founded their Baptist church in Gould's home four years ago. For participating in Baptist worship services in defiance of a court order, Gould, Turner and Farnum were ordered out of the jurisdiction of the General Court before July 20 of last year. The three were imprisoned when they refused to leave Boston and their church.

When news of the persecution of Gould and others of the Baptist church reached England, a nonconformist there wrote to an acquaintance in America:

"Oh, how it grieves and affects us that New England should persecute! Will you not give what you take? Is liberty of conscience your due? And is it not as due unto others that are sound in the faith? Now must we force our interpretations upon others, Pope-like?"

"Is that horrid principle crept into precious New England, who have felt what persecution is, and have always pleaded for liberty of conscience? Have not these (Baptists) run equal hazards with you for their liberties? We blush and are filled with shame and confusion when we hear of these things."

A number of leading churchmen in England wrote to Governor Bellingham pleading for the Baptists. They doubtless felt that intolerance in New England also appealed to the General Court to release the prisoners, pointing out that they were men of character and worth to the community. Some were fined for signing the petition, however.

Treatment of the Baptists has been generally regarded as unjust and magistrates probably would have released the prisoners long ago had it not been for the influence of the governor, who militantly opposed the little church.

BAPTISTS FORM RELIEF COMMITTEE FOR HUNGARY

VIENNA (RNS) — A Baptist Relief Committee for Hungary, composed of denominational leaders from various parts of Europe, was set up here.

It will purchase food and medical supplies in Vienna and process parcels of clothing, shoes and non-perishable foods sent by Baptists from various parts of the world.

Committee members visited a refugee camp in Austria and contacted Baptists who had fled from Hungary. Most of these refugees were young people and children, a spokesman said.

It was announced that the Baptist church in Vienna has set up three emergency centers for Hungarian refugees pouring across the border. Two of them are in Vienna and the third in Strasburg.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (RNS) — Contributions in support of North Carolina church-related colleges for the first six months of the current fiscal year were more than double the amount for the corresponding period last year.

This was reported here to the board of trustees of the North Carolina Foundation for Church-Related Colleges.

For the first six months of the current year the foundation received $73,326 from 51 contributors. For the same period last year it received $30,000 from 35 contributors. The total for last year was $110,117 from 117 contributors.

The funds, solicited by the presidents of the 25 member colleges, are distributed among the schools at the end of the year.

Contributions come primarily from business and industry.

MELBOURNE — An eight-member delegation of top Australian Anglican churchmen left home on a visit to China during which they will travel 10,000 miles as guests of the Chinese Episcopal Church.

LET NOT YOUR HEARTS BE TROUBLED.

Bible Text: John 14.

Introduction. Here we are at the end of the trail with the Lord and His. Was it in the upper room where they had eaten the last supper? The Lord was, it might be, lengthening out this last meeting because He knew it was the last, and He wanted to prepare them for all that imminent separation meant. Their hearts were harrowed up and they were everywhere low in spirit.

I. WHY THEIR HEARTS WERE HARROWED UP, TROUBLED.

Their Teacher and Lord was going away and leave them alone. They had left their all to follow Him, and in this course had given their all. He, their Lord, had provided their need, but now they were to lose Him. They had been hungry, but His command over all things had provided them food. Now that was cut off. They had left their friends for this One Friend and for His sake had made many enemies; for those who hated Him, hated them also for His sake, and now, away from home in the midst of a city full of hateful hearts, He was about to leave them.

As a sore wound to their pride, they had just learned that one from among them was to betray Him—sell Him to His deadly enemies. Little wonder that their hearts were harrowed up.

But there was one of their number whom they had learned to regard as a man of dauntless courage. This brave man would go a step farther than he who went farthest in standing for a conviction. This brave man had said to the Master, "I will lay down my life for you"; and then, the Lord had told this bold man, "Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, this night you will deny that you know me." Do you wonder that their hearts were harrowed up?

II. HOW JESUS FANNED THEIR FLAGGING COURAGE.

"Let not your hearts be troubled." Why? "Ye believe in God, and ye believe in me." (My translation, and I believe I stand by it). The greatest thing about them, the greatest thing about anybody — the greatest possession of any mortal man — is his faith. You have faith in something! What? Is it such a thing that you can trust your faith in it to stand in the storm? Do you have faith in your faith?

F. D. R. told us the danger of fear, the danger of fearing fear. Dispute your doubt, fight your fear. Place your faith for this and all worlds, for this life and all life in God the Father and the Lord Jesus, and then have faith in that faith, rest in the verity of that faith.

The believer in Him shall do the same character of works that He had been doing, and greater works than He had done should they do because He was going to the Father. "Greater works—greater works—greater works: Ring the changes on that Phrase till the truth of it penetrates your thinking."

During the course of his earthly ministry, He won to open profession and fellowship, one hundred twenty disciples: fifty days after He spoke these words on the Day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit through these won three thousand, three thousand in a day!

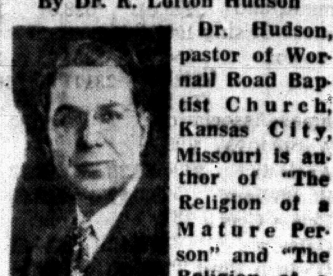

Greater works! Greater works! In His school of training for Christian workers, he taught twelve: while out here at Mississippi College, six devoted Bible teachers are teaching 300 every year. Think of the scores, I do not know how many over at Millsaps, under the able leadership of my dear friend Bond Fleming and his able helpers, are being prepared to preach the gospel.

Greater works! Greater works! Oud blessed Lord, the Great physician, healed many sick He while He was here; but contrast His number with the multitudes that are being healed every day in all the great hospitals raised in His name all over the world. He was not leaving them alone, anyway. He was coming, He said, and He did come in such fashion and manner as to be able to be with them each and all wherever they might be on this rolling earth.

He is sending them another Strengthened, another Comforter, another teacher, Who will be with them forever, to strengthen them in their hours of weak-

Counselor's Corner

By Dr. R. Lofton Hudson

Dr. Hudson, pastor of Wornall Road Baptist Church, Kansas City, Missouri is author of "The Religion of a Mature Person" and "The Religion of a Sound Mind" for the Baptist Record.

(Author of the new book FOR OUR AGE OF ANXIETY which may be purchased from your Baptist Book Store.)

Divorce and Remarriage
QUESTION: My wife and I lived together for 32 years, raised two children, and have four grandsons. She kept going out with another man and finally left and is living with him in another state. I divorced her.

My question is: if a man divorces his wife for fornication, is he free to marry again according to the Bible? And can he be a deacon in a Baptist church, according to the Bible?

ANSWER: Any way I answer your question I will get a dozen letters condemning me to the lower regions and praying for my conversion. All prayers appreciated.

I could quote you Bible scholars on both sides of this question, each of which would disagree with the other. Actually, the Bible has no single verse that deals with your specific question. A man and a woman are to live together for life. They ought to do everything possible to make the marriage a rich and valuable experience. But your problem is that of what the innocent (?) party has a right to do.

My advice is you read your New Testament and see what kind of a God you are serving. Examine Christ's teachings on love and justice. See what He had to say about the Sabbath being made for man and not man for the Sabbath. Then ask yourself whether remarriage for an innocent party of a divorce seems to be in line with the principles which Christ taught.

As to your other question, most Baptist churches believe that the Bible teaches that a deacon must have only one living wife.

RHODESIAN SECT MEMBERS SEEK TO SETTLE IN ISRAEL

PORT ELIZABETH, So. Africa (RNS)—More than 1,300 Rhodesian Africans here who were ordered by the government to leave South Africa have petitioned the Israeli Consulate in Johannesburg for permission to emigrate to Israel.

They are members of a sect called the Apostolic Sabbath Church of God. Their leader, Jack Sitole, told Israeli officials: "All of us would like to settle in Israel. We consider ourselves a Jewish sect and we observe the Sabbath and practice the laws of the Torah."

Members of the sect began coming to South Africa from Southern Rhodesia eight years ago. They founded a basket-weaving and furniture industry on a communal basis in the non-white slum area where they live. Last month government officials said their presence in the country was "illegal" and ordered them to leave. The Department of Native Affairs said "there is no provision for the permanent settlement of foreign Africans" in South Africa. It said the department's representative had warned the sect members to return to Rhodesia 15 months ago.

The "basket makers," as they are popularly known, observe strict rules of cleanliness, may not marry outside their community and are not permitted to drink alcoholic beverages, smoke or swear.

MIAMI, Fla. — The superintendent of Dade County public schools said in an interview he will ask the county school board to take action demonstrating that it recognizes the importance of religious training.

COMMUNITY MISSIONS CHAIRMEN

These suggestions have been made for enclosures in Christmas packages to shut-ins, needy etc. "Christmas and You," a folder in green and white; "Christmas Sweetest Story," "If Christ Had Not Come," "The Free Gift of Christmas," "God's Supreme Gift" are title of leaflets. These are $1.00 for 125 and can be ordered from:

Good News Publishers,
411 South Wells Street,
Chicago 7, Ill.

Another thing that would be most helpful would be to secure the "Christmas for Christ" stamps (50 to each sheet four sheets for $1.00; 12 sheets for $2.00). These have an anti-alcohol emphasis and could be placed on the backs of Christmas cards, letters and packages; on letters to business firms urging them to hold "spiritless" Christmas parties; on personal letters to radio and TV stations urging them to eliminate beer casting at Christmas time by tearing out Christmas liquor ads, attaching a stamp and

Cutrell Accepts Trinity Pastorate

Rev. Clarence Cutrell, pastor for the past seven years of First Church, Calhoun City, has resigned to accept the pastorate of Trinity Church, Biloxi, effective Dec. 1.

The Calhoun City church has had a substantial growth under his leadership. Sunday School enrollment has increased from 384 to 561 and the school has been standard for the past three years. Training Union enrollment has grown from 105 to 249.

The educational building, with nine departments, offices, library and music room, has been erected and equipped.

The Mississippi Baptist Historical Society held its regular annual meeting in Jackson November 13 with the church clerks of the "Historic Baptist Churches" of the state as honor guests. (These churches were those still alive and active, having been constituted prior to December 24, 1836, the date of the re-organization of the Mississippi Baptist Convention.) The historic churches were asked to send their old church record books to be deposited with the Society for safekeeping in the library of Mississippi College, with J. L. Boyd, Sr., Curator.

Some of the churches responded favorably and, added to those which had sent theirs in during the previous twelve months, were as follows: Antioch, Rankin County, five volumes; Bethel, Copiah County, one volume; Bethany, Jefferson Davis County, three volumes; Fair River, Lincoln County, three volumes; Fellowship, Webster County, five volumes; Mt. Horeb, Lauderdale County, three volumes; Mt. Zion, Simpson County, thirteen volumes; Pleasant Grove, Chickasaw County, one volume; Strong River, Simpson County, five volumes; Union, Panola County, one volume; Yockanookany, Attala County, four volumes.

This brings the total of Baptist churches in the state which have deposited their old church record books with the Historical Society for safekeeping to 84 and a total of 209 volumes of old records. This service is rendered to the churches by the Society without charge, and the records remain the property of the individual churches thus depositing them.

The Society is made up of the clerks of the 76 associations affiliating with the Mississippi Baptist Convention.

Accepts First, Gulfport

Dr. Landrum P. Leavell, pastor of First Church, Charleston, for 3½ years, has resigned to accept the pastorate of the First Church, Gulfport, effective Dec. 15.

He will succeed Dr. Joe T. Odle who resigned recently to become state associate executive secretary.

INSTALLATION OF MINISTER A FAMILY AFFAIR

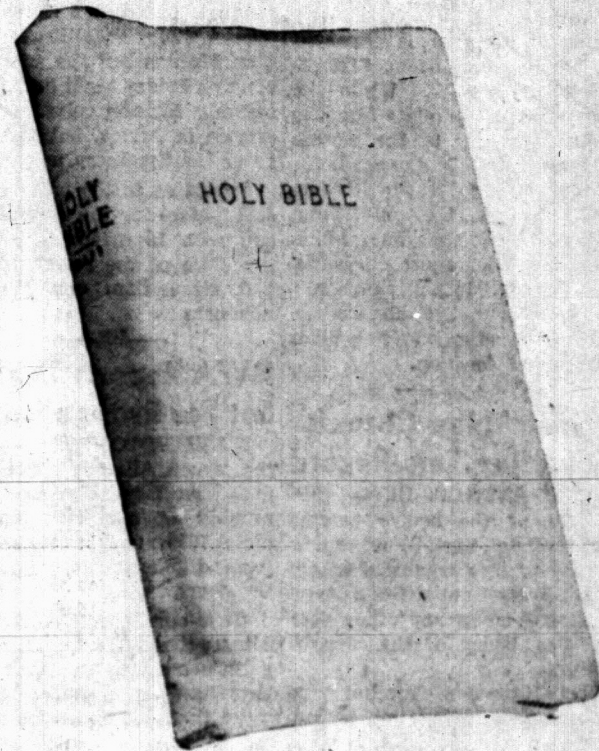

HARTFORD, Conn. (RNS)—It was a real family affair when Rev. Robert Lansing Edwards was installed as minister of Immanuel Congregational church here.

His wife, also an ordained minister, gave the call to worship and the invocation. His father, Rev. Deane Edwards of New York who is president of the Hymn Society of America, gave the charge.

The father and son are direct descendants of the famed preacher of colonial days, Jonathan Edwards.

The younger Mr. Edwards succeeds Rev. Fletcher D. Parker who retired Sept. 1 after serving the church since 1927.

ATTEND "M" NIGHT In Your ASSOCIATION

This is the last week of the Bible Contest—Please do not mail answers after Monday, December 3rd, 1956. We have received thousands and thousands of letters from all sections of the state, and we hope the interest in Bible reading will continue to grow. It has been a real satisfaction on our part to have contributed the many Bibles to readers of this paper, also to have had the many contacts through the thirteen weeks of the contest.

Fire Destroys Church Annex In Vicksburg

A fire that is believed to have been caused by defective electrical wiring completely destroyed the three storied educational annex of the First Church in Vicksburg last Saturday night.

The fire, which was discovered about 9:30 p. m., is estimated to have caused about $125,000 worth of damage. While the annex was a complete loss, the main sanctuary of the church was only slightly damaged.

According to Buddy Jordan, church clerk, the only thing salvaged from the annex building were the church records. Dr. John G. McCall is pastor.

The church had already begun construction on a new plant at another location.

Illinois' New Church Founding Sets Record

WASHINGTON (BP)—Baptist World Alliance officers report that Baptist groups in a number of countries plan to make 1959 a special year of organized simultaneous evangelistic effort.

Main Street Pledges More Than $138,000 On One Sunday

For the tenth consecutive year the Main Street Church, Hattiesburg, oversubscribed its budget in one day. The total pledged on Sunday, November 18, was $138,148. This is $2,748.00 over the 1957 budget of $135,400.

This is $2,748.00 over the 1957 budget of $135,400.

For a month preceding Pledge Day three-minute speakers gave testimonies on tithing. Posters kept before the people the plan to oversubscribe the budget in one day. During this time the pastor brought messages dealing with God's plan of giving with the tithe as a minimum.

A new feature added this year to the Pledge Day plans was a Weekend Stewardship Revival with Dr. E. N. Patterson of New Orleans preaching.

Blake Cress served as Budget Day director. On Sunday, November 11, a special tithing lesson was taught throughout the Sunday School.

On November 18 all departments of the Sunday School moved to the main auditorium for a master pledging service, which is the highlight of Pledge Day. "It is an inspiration to see everyone, beginning with the infants in arms and going through the older adults, walk by the replica of the church and drop in their pledge cards," said Dr. John E. Barnes, Jr., pastor.

After the morning worship service, 260 persons were served a turkey dinner in Fellowship Hall by Mrs. Charles Askew, hostess. Immediately afterwards, 200 of these, working with eleven team captains, went into the homes of those who had not yet pledged.

During the morning and afternoon, tabulators and adding machine operators, working with Frank D. Montague, kept totals on the amount pledged, number pledging and number of tithe.

This year for the first time since the plan was inaugurated before the evening service began.

January Bible Study Week is getting to be one of the really great weeks of the year in the churches that observe it.

This time the study is the Book of Romans, with the title of the guidebook, "The Gospel According to Paul." It will be a great study, indeed.

Mrs. O. M. Jones, Manager of the Baptist Book Store, Jackson, urges that churches send in to her their order for books immediately so she can be sure that sufficient books are available for that week.

It will be wise to heed this admonition of Mrs. Jones and send her your book order soon.

For this week to be the best, it will require careful planning and ample publicity, just as all other parts of the program. Let's do our best to make it the best we have ever had in this study.

Off The Record

Father to suitor: "Young man, the one who marries my daughter will get a prize."

Suitor: "May I see it, sir?"

During a spelling lesson in school, Mary was asked to spell weather. "W-e-t-h-e-r." "Hmrm! That's the worst spell of weather we've had in some time," said the teacher.

In a village located in the American zone of Western Germany, police were troubled by a rash of "Americans, Go Home" signs scribbled on walls. All the messages were written only a few feet from the ground.

Investigators rejected the theory that communist midgets were at work in the area. They finally identified the culprits: three young children of American Air Force officers stationed in the village. They just thought that going home would be fun.

Radio Announcer: "We have just received a bulletin of a catastrophe, the like of which has never been known to mankind—but first a word from our sponsor."

A couple of commuters were bragging about their children. One said, "When my son went to college, it only took him 3 years to get his B. A."

The 2nd commuter scoffed. "That's impossible," he sputtered. "How could she get a Ph.D. in only 2 yrs?"

The proud father said complacently, "For her it was easy. She married him."

A woman of cynical Missouri stock, was complaining about the ineffectiveness of her hearing aid.

"Why not get a new one?" her son inquired.

"No," she replied wistfully, "not for $200. There isn't that much worth hearing."

The old-fashioned parent believes that stern discipline means just where it says.
